

Comprehension

(A) Answer these questions :

Question 1.

“When the road you’re trudging seems all uphill”. What do you mean by ‘trudging’ here ?

Answer:

Trudging means walking wearily.

Question 2.

When should we take rest ?

Answer:

When we feel that we are under heavy pressure, we should take rest for a while.

Question 3.

When do we learn that our life is strange ?

Answer:

When we come through the twists and turns of the life we learn that it is strange.

Question 4.

What should we do when our pace seems slow ?

Answer:

We should not give up even if our pace seems slow.

Question 5.

How can we get success ?

Answer:

We can get success by fighting with all the difficulties that come in our life now and then.

Question 6.

What should we do 'when things seem worst'?

Answer:

When things seem worst, we have to stick to them. We must not quit.

Question 7.

Is it possible that nearly situated goal may appear far ? If yes, then when and why ?

Answer:

Yes, it is possible when we are confused and full of doubts.

Question 8.

Which lines of the poem do you like most and why?

Answer:

Life is queer with its twists and turns,

As everyone of us sometimes learns.

I like the above lines of the poem most because they are based on the realities of life. Our life is full of ups and downs and we learn a lot while going through them.

(A) Match the following :

A

tint

queer

uphill

trudging

B

strange

walking wearily

colour

difficult

Answer:

tint – colour, queer – strange, uphill – difficult, trudging – walking wearily.

(B) Arrange the jumbled letters into meaningful words.

ufdns f _ _ _ _

utiq q _ _ _

tdbe d _ _ _

ikcts s _ _ _ _ _

Answer:

funds,quit,debt,sticks

Question 1.

When things go wrong –

(a) we should take rest.

(b) we should quit

(c) we shouldn't quit.

Answer:

(c) we shouldn't quit.

Questions 2.

The moral of the poem is –

(a) we should face the difficulties of life.

(b) we should enjoy our success only.

(c) we should run away from the difficulties of life.

Answer:

(a) we should face the difficulties of life.

A

When things go wrong
Rest if you must
As everyone of us
Success is failure

B

turned inside out
sometime learns
as they sometime
will
but don't you quit

Answer:

- When things go wrong as they sometime will.
- Rest if you must but don't you quit.
- As everyone of us sometimes learns.
- Success is failure turned inside out.